He has also been admitted as a Solicitor of the Superior Courts of England and Wales. Craig is an experienced defence lawyer specialising in criminal, traffic and professional regulatory and disciplinary matters. We asked Craig, if he had one piece of advice for alumni what would it be?

“Pablo Picasso is said to have commented: ‘Action is the foundational key to all success.’ I agree. Dreams and plans are important but it is critical that they be teamed with decisive physical steps. Get involved, work hard and create your own momentum. Be prepared to face challenges and strive to keep taking small steps forward. Importantly, be willing to continually learn from your actions and the actions of others.”
